

WARNER HALL

CHECK OUT
PACMU
ON THE APP STORE

FACMU

WELCOME

NEW

RETURNING

PACMU

WELCOME

NEW

RETURNING

PACMU

MAP

LIST

ROUTE

IMAGE

LIST

ROUTE

IMAGE

PACMU

Walking to the Sky

📍 Located on The Cut across from Waner Hall

Artist(s)

Jonathon Borofsky (A' 64)

Year

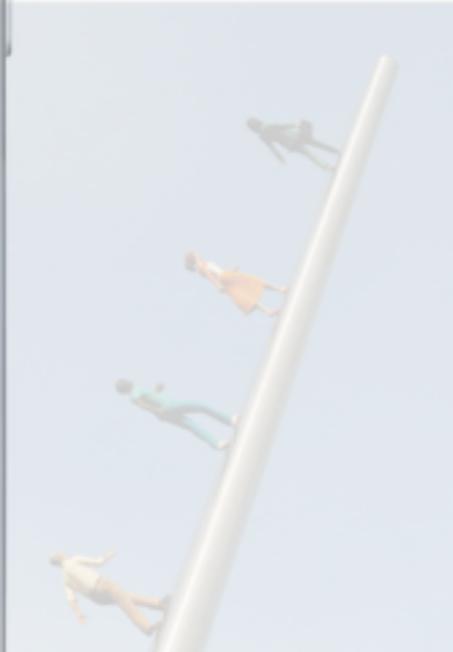

2004

Description

This 100 foot tall, seven ton sculpture reflects Carnegie Mellon's 21st century effort to bring new forms of art and architecture to campus. It is inspired by story of friendly giant who lived in the sky and is in celebration of the

P A C M U

Walking to the Sky

Located on The Cut across from Waner Hall

Artist(s)

Jonathon Borofsky (A' 64)

Year

2004

Description

This 100 foot tall, seven ton sculpture reflects Carnegie Mellon's 21st century effort to bring new forms of art and architecture to campus. It is inspired by story of friendly giant who lived in the sky and is in celebration of the human potential for discovering who we are and where we need to go. Walking to the Sky symbolizes ambitions of students and faculty reaching out for new knowledge.

PACMU

Walking to the Sky

•••

📍 Located on The Cut across from Isener Hall

Artist

Jonathon Borofsky (MFA)

Year

2004

Description

The 100 foot tall, seven ton sculpture reflects Carnegie Mellon's 21st century effort to bring new forms of art and architecture to campus. It is inspired by story of Heracles, a giant who lived in the sky and is in celebration of the

MAP

LIST

ROUTE

IMAGE

